Short Description of the Book. This should be different then the Abstract, which is a detailed short description, this is just a Template for a Book, if it was a Book I would talk about why you want to read this book. This Temple is used for the Web, PDF, ePub, and Mobi file formats.

This Document is ? License type.

Abstract

The Abstract is a short detailed description of the book. This is Sample text, you delete it, and add your own text. This is just a sample Chapter text, just enough so you can see it in the template, but not so much it takes a lot of space. The First Paragraph uses a class text_top, the next paragraph uses a text_indent class, this allows you to format the top paragraph different then the others.

Acknowledgments

Acknowledgments section allows you to Acknowledge those who helped write this book. This is Sample text, you delete it, and add your own text. This is just a sample Chapter text, just enough so you can see it in the template, but not so much it takes a lot of space. The First Paragraph uses a class text_top, the next paragraph uses a text_indent class, this allows you to format the top paragraph different then the others.
